

What to do if Donald Trump is Reelected President

Welcome to the AARGH! TRUMP'S BEEN REELECTED! blog

Democrats' greatest fear has just been realized., so many of them are going to spend another four years grousing, complaining, and writing hate-filled blogs about our commander-in-chief.

If you are a Christian, you have two options:

1. You can deny your faith and join in the hateful rhetoric. That's denying my faith? Yes, it is. To embrace Jesus Christ is to embrace His love and grace. Therefore, to live a life devoid of love and grace towards others speaks against the very One you claim to follow.

"Everyone who hates his brother or sister is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life residing in him" (1 John 3:15).

2. You can pray for and honor President Trump. I don't mean pray a piano falls on him; pray for him in every right way. Pray with honor toward him. How can I honor him when I think he's evil and is going to bring us to ruin? You can do it; the apostle Peter did.

"Honor everyone. Love the brothers and sisters. Fear God. Honor the emperor" (1 Pet. 2:17).

I know what you're thinking. "Yes, we should honor the office, but I hate this president." Peter didn't command us to honor the office of emperor, but to honor the emperor. And don't think Peter would've said something different had he lived under a President Trump.

He lived under the emperor Nero.

- Nero, the ruthless leader who killed his own mother.
- Nero, the man with multiple marriages who brutally kicked one of his wives when she was pregnant.
- Nero, the man who tortured Christians.
- Nero, the man who saw to it that Peter was killed.

Yet Peter said "Honor the emperor."

What to do if Joe Biden is Elected President

Welcome to the AARGH! TRUMP'S BEEN REELECTED! blog

Republican's greatest fear has just been realized., so many of them are going to spend the next four years grousing, complaining, and writing hate-filled blogs about our commander-in-chief.

If you are a Christian, you have two options:

1. You can deny your faith and join in the hateful rhetoric. That's denying my faith? Yes, it is. To embrace Jesus Christ is to embrace His love and grace. Therefore, to live a life devoid of love and grace towards others speaks against the very One you claim to follow.

"Everyone who hates his brother or sister is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life residing in him" (1 John 3:15).

2. You can pray for and honor President Trump. I don't mean pray a piano falls on him; pray for him in every right way. Pray with honor toward him. How can I honor him when I think he's evil and is going to bring us to ruin? You can do it; the apostle Peter did.

"Honor everyone. Love the brothers and sisters. Fear God. Honor the emperor" (1 Pet. 2:17).

I know what you're thinking. "Yes, we should honor the office, but I hate this president." Peter didn't command us to honor the office of emperor, but to honor the emperor. And don't think Peter would've said something different had he lived under a President Trump.

He lived under the emperor Nero.

- Nero, the ruthless leader who killed his own mother.
- Nero, the man with multiple marriages who brutally kicked one of his wives when she was pregnant.
- Nero, the man who tortured Christians.
- Nero, the man who saw to it that Peter was killed.

Yet Peter said "Honor the emperor."

The course of action is the same for all of us, regardless of our political leanings.

We are to pray for—and honor—the President, whether it's President Trump or President Biden.